

Home Tutoring and Homebound Instruction Services

The district shall provide home tutoring or home instruction services to students served by the district if home tutoring or instruction is required by a student's Individual Education Program (IEP), or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP), or if requested and/or contracted by a school district to provide home tutoring or instruction as an alternative education for a student whose educational status, health or impairment requires that student to be homebound. Home tutoring and instruction shall be in accordance with the IEP, IFSP or alternative instructional program designated by the district.

Homebound/Home tutoring or home instructional services will be provided to any district student, temporarily disabled or for other medical reasons, unable to attend the district program as substantiated by a physician's statement.

No employee of the district shall provide home tutoring or instruction without a parent, guardian, sibling over 18 years of age or parent authorized adult caregiver present during the time of home instruction or tutoring.

Such services may be provided only upon prior approval of the superintendent or designee.
