Classification: Licensed

Reports To: Director of Special Programs or designee

Performance Responsibilities:

1. Provide direct instruction to children with hearing loss in the areas of communication and academics in order to increase their ability to function effectively and participate fully in home, school and community.
2. Assist children who have hearing loss, their family, peers, regular education personnel, and other professional staff to understand the unique learning characteristics of individuals with hearing loss.
3. Communicate with audiologists and medical facilities to ensure that families, educators, and other professionals are knowledgeable about amplification, implants, assistive listening devices, and other technology that will benefit the child with hearing loss.
4. Provide coaching, training and general support to families, educators and other professionals.
5. Participate as a member of Individual Family Service Plan (IFSP) and Individual Education Plan (IEP) teams, conducting initial evaluations and three-year re-evaluations, using appropriate assessment instruments.
6. Develop and implement appropriate IFSPs/IEPs for children assigned to caseload, including those with additional disabilities and needs, and provide adaptations, as needed, in the learning environment.
7. Develop and maintain a schedule for providing services to children with hearing loss.
8. Provide a continuum of services including consultation, coaching, direct instruction, and referral for other services, as appropriate.
9. Develop and maintain evaluation records on student progress.
10. Collaborate with families, classroom teacher, educational interpreters/signing assistants and other professionals to plan, adapt curriculum, and problem solve as necessary to ensure each child's educational growth.
11. Demonstrate professionalism by respecting and maintaining confidential information in all situations.
12. Fulfill other work-related duties, as assigned.
13. Assume a non-biased philosophy and approach to communication modalities when working with children, families and colleagues.
14. Participate in continued professional development.

Terms of Employment:

A contract renewable annually by the Board of Directors, under the terms and conditions of the statutes and administrative rules of the State of Oregon, conditioned upon successful evaluations and the employee's maintenance of a current, valid teaching credential. Salary and benefits are established by policy and collective bargaining agreement.
