Hope Academy

High Desert Education Service District (ESD) operates the educational program Hope Academy under contract with the Oregon Department of Education, and at the request of Redmond School District No. 2-J, with the following understandings:

1. High Desert ESD has accepted responsibility for the educational program at the Hope Academy. The Board of Directors of High Desert ESD may, following consultation with the Board of Directors of Redmond School District, decline to renew the contract with the Oregon Department of Education for operating the educational program at the Hope Academy.
2. The responsibility for providing all special educational services for the children attending the Hope Academy, including but not limited to referral and assessment, Individualized Education Program (IEP) development and implementation, three year reevaluation, and all due process guarantees and procedures rests with the ESD.
