Confidentiality Homeschool Information Agreement

The information contained in homeschool records, communications, and associated documentation is strictly confidential and intended solely for authorized individuals involved in the administration, oversight, or support of homeschooling activities. This information may include, but is not limited to, student academic records, personal identification details, assessments, and communications with parents or guardians.

By accessing or using this information, you agree to the following:

1. Confidentiality: You will maintain the confidentiality of all homeschool-related information and will not disclose it to any unauthorized persons, entities, or third parties without proper consent or legal authority.
2. Limited Use: You will use the information only for its intended educational or administrative purpose and not for personal, commercial, or unrelated objectives.
3. Data Protection: You will take reasonable measures to protect this information from unauthorized access, loss, or misuse.
4. Compliance: You will comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and policies governing student privacy and data protection, including (but not limited to) the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), if applicable.

Unauthorized use or disclosure of confidential homeschool information may result in disciplinary action, legal consequences, or both.

If you have received information in error or are unsure about your authorization to access it, please notify the appropriate party immediately and refrain from further use or distribution.
